

Award-winning and highly-rated, Cleveland Arts and Social Sciences Academy (CASSA) serves the Buckeye-Shaker community and surrounding neighborhoods with a college preparatory curriculum that emphasizes creativity and hands-on, project-based learning.

The campus features an auditorium, gym, playground, and cafeteria. CASSA's well-rounded program includes robust Fine Arts programming, character education, and sports. Starting in grade 7, students can earn college credit through the College Credit Plus program.

The school offers many extracurricular activities and events throughout the year to encourage parent and community participation. Additionally, families benefit from free breakfast and lunch, transportation, and on-site counseling services.

MISSION STATEMENT

To provide all students with a content-rich, academically challenging education with a well-defined, sequential curriculum in a safe, orderly, disciplined environment.
